RULE	SECTION I - GENERAL RULES
35	PASSENGER EXPENSES EN ROUTE (A) MEALS, HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS, GROUND TRANSPORTATION AND TRANSIT TAXES            (1) If food is provided, it is provided at no charge.            (2) Hotel expenses, charges for ground transportation service, meals other than those served aloft, airport service charges and transit taxes are not included in passenger fares.  EXCEPTION: This rule does not apply at connecting points in the U.S.A. or Canada for passengers originating in, destined to or having their point of turnaround in that area. This rule also does not apply at connecting points in Western Hemisphere for Economy fare passengers originating in, destined to, or having their point of turnaround in Area No. 1.  NOTE: For the purpose of this rule, connecting point means a point to which a passenger holds or held confirmed space on a flight of one carrier and out of which the passenger holds or held confirmed space on a flight of the same or another carrier. All airports through which a city is served by any carrier shall be deemed to be a single connecting point when the receiving carrier has confirmed reservations to the delivery carrier. (B) HOTEL RESERVATIONS            When requested by passenger, carrier will make application on their behalf for hotel reservations, but the availability thereof is not guaranteed. All expenses incurred by carrier in arranging, or attempting to arrange for reservations will be chargeable to passengers. (C) ARRANGEMENTS MADE BY CARRIER            In making arrangements for hotel or other housing and board accommodations for passengers or for excursion trips on the ground or other similar arrangements whether or not the cost of such arrangements is for the account of carrier, carrier acts only as agent for the passenger and carrier is not liable for loss, damage or expense of any nature whatsoever incurred by the passenger as a result of or in connection with the use by the passenger of such accommodation or the denial of the use thereof to the passenger by any other person, company or agency.
