The list of Prohibited Items may vary depending where you board an aircraft. We have the right to amend the list of Prohibited Items from time to time. Please check with us or your Authorized Agent prior to travel on what items you may be permitted to take in as Checked Baggage.

It's important to know that even if an item is generally permitted, it may be subject to additional screening or not allowed through the checkpoint if it triggers an alarm during the screening process, appears to have been tampered with, or poses other security concerns. The final decision rests with the air transport security authority on whether to allow any items on the plane. Also, please note that some of these Prohibited Items are illegal in certain jurisdictions and passengers will be subject to the law of that jurisdiction. It is a passenger's responsibility to be aware that origination and destination ports may have local laws prohibiting the possession of these items. If you try to include a Prohibited Item in your Cabin Baggage, you acknowledge that we have the right to take them from you. - 5.3 Fiji Airways will not rely on any defence under Article 20 (1) of the Convention for that part of any claim for recoverable compensatory damages arising under Article 17 of the Convention that does not exceed 100,000 Special Drawing Rights. Otherwise Fiji Airways will rely on all other defences under the Convention.
- 5.4 In addition, in cases of death or bodily injury, if required by law, Fiji Airways will make advance payments to the person entitled to compensation, if required, to meet immediate economic needs, in proportion to the hardship suffered.
- 5.5 Liability for loss, delay or damage to baggage is limited to about US$20 per kilo for checked baggage and US$400 per passenger for unchecked baggage. For travel pursuant to a contract of carriage providing for travel wholly between United States points, such liability is limited to a maximum of US$2,500 per passenger.

5.6 There is no waiver of any rights or limitation of liability by any entity or carrier (including any carrier performing any part of the carriage shown on the ticket) other than Fiji Airways

6. DOMESTIC NOTICE – LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

6.1 “Domestic Carriage” for the purpose of this paragraph means carriage which is not “international carriage” as defined by the Warsaw Convention or the Montreal Convention.

Passenger: Domestic Carriage is subject to the Fiji Civil Aviation Act (cap 174) as amended. This legislation limits liability for death or injury of any passenger to FJD500, 000.

Baggage: Checked baggage liability limit – FJD1, 000 per passenger for destruction, loss or damage.
Cabin baggage liability limit – FJD200 per passenger.

6.2 TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW ALL LIABILITY IS EXCLUDED FOR:

- (i) Any injury in the nature of depression, anxiety, depressive illness, functional overlay or psychiatric injuries or for distress, grief, or loss of enjoyment however caused;
- (ii) Any indirect or consequential loss or damage resulting from lost, damaged or delayed baggage, whether the carriage is international carriage or domestic carriage; and

(Such items should be kept with you or in your cabin baggage under your care or sent by freight).

6.3 In respect to baggage liability is limited to FJD1000 (for checked baggage), and FJD100 per passenger (for cabin baggage). Damage must be sighted by an employee or representative of the Airline at the airport/airstrip. Delayed/lost baggage must be reported on arrival and a complaint in writing must be received within 14 days of when you should have received it.

6.4 For any direct or consequential losses or damages in relation to your baggage or articles that are not checked baggage, the Airline will not have any liability, subject to any rights you may have under the Fair Trading Decree 1992 (Fiji). To the extent permitted by law, if you are or hold yourself out as acquiring this carriage or other services from the carrier for the purpose of a business, then the provisions of the Fair Trading Decree 1992 (Fiji) will not apply to such carriage or those services.

7. SEATING

7.1 The Airline does not guarantee you any particular seat even if your reservation is confirmed. You must accept any seat allocated on the flight even if this involves a downgrade, or wait until the next flight on which a seat is available in the class of service paid for.

7.2 The Airline may refuse carriage of any passenger or passenger’s baggage without any liability on its part if due to the passenger’s physical state the passenger requires an additional seat (for economy class travel only) unless the passenger agrees to pay for an additional economy class seat at the applicable fare including all applicable fees and taxes, and other charges imposed by Governments, authorities or airport operators.

8. OVERBOOKING NOTICE/DENIED BOARDING

8.1 There is a chance a seat will not be available on a flight even if your reservation is confirmed. This is due to the common practice in the airline industry of overbooking. If an international flight from USA is overbooked, no one will be denied a seat until the Airline calls for volunteers to give up their reservations in exchange for a payment of the Airline’s choosing. If there are not enough volunteers, the Airlines will deny boarding to reservation holders in accordance with its policy. Passengers who are denied carriage by reason of non-availability of seats may be eligible for compensation. Details of applicable compensation may be obtained at check-in.

8.2 The Airline may refuse to refund a passenger for a ticket if the Airline's failure to provide carriage in accordance with the contract of carriage is due to a government security directive.

9. REFUNDS

9.1 Requests for refunds will be processed in accordance with the terms and conditions applicable to the ticket you purchased.

9.2 If you purchased a non-refundable ticket and your flight is cancelled, you will be entitled to receive a travel credit to the value of the unused portion of your ticket, unless local legislation requires that a refund be provided to you. If your non-refundable ticket was for travel to or from the United States and your flight was cancelled, you are entitled to receive a refund, unless you wish to use your ticket to travel at a later date or accept a travel credit.

9.3 If you are entitled to a refund, you will receive (i) the amount you paid for the ticket, if the ticket has not been used, or (ii) the value of the remaining part of the ticket (if any), if the ticket has been partly used, in each case including applicable taxes and carrier charges, but excluding any applicable fees.

9.4 Unless an applicable law says otherwise, we may refuse to provide a refund if it is requested after the end of the ticket validity period.

9.5 Any refund will be paid to the person who paid for the ticket, unless that person has authorised us in writing to pay the refund to someone else. Refunds will be paid in the same way and in the same currency used to pay for the ticket.

10. GOVERNMENT & OTHER TAXES AND CHARGES

The price of your ticket may include significant amounts of taxes, charges and fees imposed on air transport by governments, authorities and airport operators (in the fare e.g. Value Added Tax (VAT), Goods & Services Tax (GST), Departure Taxes, Noise levies, etc. shown separately as a TAX/FEE/CHARGE). You may also be required to pay additional taxes, fees or charges not marked on your ticket. Some USA airports may impose Passenger Facility Charges (PFC) of up to US$4.50 to finance airport related projects. Note that passengers departing Samoa (e.g. Apia) are required to pay WST40 (subject to change without notice) at the airport.

You must pay your fare, including any taxes, fees and carriers charges in the currency of the country in which the Ticket is issued, unless we or our Authorised Agent permit or require you to use another currency at or before the time you pay (for example, because of the non-convertibility of the local currency). We may decide, and reserve our right, to accept payment in another currency.

Personal and baggage insurance is recommended. Details may be obtained from the Airline, or your travel agent.
